

MailStore is one of the world's leading solutions for email archiving, management and compliance for small and medium-sized businesses – Made in Germany

Emails are the most valuable information of our time: Your employees' email inboxes contain the most valuable information your business possesses.

The challenge: Common email and groupware systems have never been designed for long-term storage and access to large amounts of data. This results in various technical, organizational, business-related and even legal defiances.

"The Standard in Email Archiving"

Regardless of which email system is used: MailStore is the email archiving solution of choice. Complete, true to original, tamper-resistant and always available – in compliance with legal requirements like GoBD or GDPR (EU-DSGVO).

MailStore does not only meet all relevant legal requirements, but also increases availability and productivity in handling your emails.

Even with the large data volumes of today's email volume. It's no coincidence that more than 60,000 companies of all sizes and industries rely on MailStore Server.
